

SOUL GLOW
© Terri Marie

The soul is timeless
And it comes here time and time again
To play, to learn
In everywhere and everywhen
And you never know
Who is who
Whose soul is in whose body
The one you before knew
Judge not the packaging
The blind exterior
No one is better
None inferior
Where and who is that interior light?
Go inside and turn it on
You will see who that one is
And a miracle you'll gaze upon
